81st Annual Meeting of the Midwest Chapter
Indiana University, Bloomington, Indiana

October 27 – 29, 2022

FROM THE CHAIR

Greetings from Champaign-Urbana!

The annual Midwest Chapter meeting is quickly approaching. We will be gathering in-person October 27-29 in Bloomington, IN. The Local Arrangements Committee Co-Chairs, Emma Dederick and Chuck Peters, have been hard at work planning the meeting. I hope everyone is looking forward to exploring Indiana University's beautiful campus and facilities. The Chapter will continue past practices and will once again livestream sessions (currently scheduled all day Friday and Saturday morning), although now over Zoom instead of Facebook. If you are planning to attend in-person, I encourage you to test prior to the meeting, mask-up when indoors, and stay home if you're not feeling well, for your own health and safety and that of other attendees.

Thank you to this year's Program Committee, Mike Duffy (Chair), Ellen Ogihara, and Emma Dederick, for their excellent work soliciting and reviewing session proposals for our 2022 meeting. Session topics include unique collections and venues in the Midwest, the history of IU music collections and people, trauma-informed information literacy, creative ideas for outreach, and more. I am personally excited see another Graduate Student Spotlight session that will include lightning talks by current chapter students.

We also have an impressive slate of candidates for our next Chair-Elect. This year's Nominating Committee, consisting of Tom Caw (Chair), Jade Kastel, and Victoria Peters, worked hard to develop the slate – thank you for your service to the Chapter. Thank you also to our two nominees, Paul Cary and Carla Williams, for their willingness to serve. If you are a member in good standing, you should receive an email with information on how to vote in September.

And finally, please keep an eye out for opportunities to get more involved with Chapter committees!

Best regards,
Kate
