MLA Midwest Tries On Its Mitten After Two Decades

Merchandise available from www.themittenstate.com

The 77th Meeting of the Music Library Association Midwest Chapter will be held in Ann Arbor, Michigan on October 18-20. This is the first time in 20 years the Chapter has assembled in the Great Lakes State. The festivities for our 1998 annual meeting took place in Kalamazoo. Much has changed in the Chapter and the world since then. Back then, Lynn Gullickson was the Chair, the Chapter dove into the world of the Internet by establishing its own website, Bill Clinton was president, and Britney Spears was hittin' us "Baby One More Time."

REMINDER

Submissions for the next issue of Midwest Note-Book are due August 15, 2018.

From the Chair

Katie Buehner

Greetings!

Spring has finally arrived in the Midwest, and with it, a few changes for the Midwest Chapter.

Abbey Thompson has accepted a position as Assistant Library Director at AMDA College and Conservatory of the Performing Arts in Los Angeles, California. Unfortunately, this means she will be stepping down as Newsletter Editor of the Midwest Chapter after this issue of Midwest Note Book. Thank you Abbey, the Chapter will miss you and extends its appreciation for your editorial work on six superb issues of Note Book!

The position of Newsletter Editor is filled via Executive Committee appointment. If you are interested in being the next Newsletter Editor for the Midwest Chapter, please contact me via email at katie-buehner@uiowa.edu with a statement of interest.

Look for the upcoming renewal email from the Music Library Association and remember to renew your Midwest membership alongside your national membership. Regular membership is $12.00 and Student membership is $6.00. If you are a chapter-only member, you can also renew your membership through the MLA website without purchasing a national membership. If you would like to donate to either of the Midwest scholarship funds, please use this form to do so.

Planning for the upcoming chapter meeting in Ann Arbor, Michigan is underway. The meeting will take place October 18-20, 2018, so be sure to mark your calendars now. The meeting website should be available shortly, as will a call for papers. Local arrangements chair Jason Imbesi and his fellow Michiganders are hard at work to prepare this year's chapter meeting (see page 1 for more details).

Accommodations for meeting attendees will be at the Hilton Garden Inn - Ann Arbor. The hotel is $139 plus tax per night, and the conference room rate includes ample parking. Located in the Briarwood Mall area, the hotel is a short distance from downtown Ann Arbor and its numerous shops, restaurants, nightlife and many other attractions. At this date, the program is still in the early stages of planning; however, it is certain that most events will be held at the conference hotel with some occurring at the University of Michigan's School of Music, Theatre and Dance, the home of the Music Library.

More information about the conference will be available in the September issue of the Midwest Note-Book. Any questions can be directed to the Local Arrangements Committee, which is comprised of Jason Imbesi, University of Michigan (Chair); Michael Duffy, Western Michigan University; Eleanor Lange, Interlochen Center for the Arts; Grace Haynes, Michigan State University; Laura Thompson, Central Michigan University; and Marianne Kordas, Andrews University. We are looking forward to finally welcoming the Midwest Chapter back to Michigan!

Goodbye From The Editor

It has been such an honor to serve the Midwest Chapter of MLA as your Newsletter Editor. This chapter has been such an excellent professional "home" to me since 2008 when I arrived with my shiny new MLS degree, to catalog brass band music in southern Minnesota. Though I left for a few years because of professional opportunities elsewhere, it was with a full and joyous heart that I came "home" again in 2015. For many of these years in MLA-MW I have had the privilege to be an Executive Officer, first as Webmaster and now as Editor of the Note-Book. This chapter has helped me grow and learn so much, and the kind, generous people I have met here will always be in my heart. Leaving the Midwest Chapter is a bittersweet thing for me, as I will miss the incredible camaraderie and friendships I have made during my tenure here! Pretty much the only thing powerful enough to lure me from my adopted Midwestern home is my original home of California, where I spent the first half of my life. I can't say I'll miss the icy winters all that much! I wish this wonderful chapter only the very best, and hope to catch up with you all at many national meetings to come.
